Company Profile

Textiles and Human Life

From time immemorial, nothing is more closely related to human life as textile. Up to date, textiles have evolved from the mere function of providing human being with protection from the elements to the expression of personality, aspiration, dreams and realization of sensational pleasure. This is why Zhangjiagang Beta Manufacturing & Textiles Co.,Ltd. was established. It was established with an aspiration for beauty and improvement of life domestically and globally.

Our Mission

To develop, produce, source and export quality garments, fabrics and home textiles on a customer oriented basis.

Production Capacity

Zhangjiagang Beta Manufacturing & Textiles Co.,Ltd. owns or is in partnership with several mills in and around Zhangjiagang. These mills include knitting mills, weaving mills and printing and dyeing mills. With mills whole owned by us, we control quality by following international quality control and quality assurance procedures. With partner mills, we operate in a different way. All these mills are carefully qualified by our evaluation standard. These mills produce for us on a term contract basis with competitive price guaranteed.

Our product lines cover:

- Flat lock underwear including:
  1. Merino wool thermal wear
  2. 100% polyester performance thermal wear

3. Nylon/Lycra performance underwear including bikini, tank top, boxer briefs, trunk boxers, short sleeve T-shirts, long sleeve tops, long leggingbottoms etc.
- Normal knitwear including: polo shirts, tee-shirts, etc
  - All kinds of circular knitted or tricot fabrics.
  - Hospitality products including table cloth, napkin, tea towel and bed sheers etc.

Geographical Location

Zhangjiagang Beta Manufacturing & Textiles Co.,Ltd. is located about 140 km west of Shanghai on the southern bank of the Yangtze River. The city of Zhangjiagang, where the company is located in, is a sub-city of the world famous Suzhou City. With a population of about 1 million, it is a new industrialized city with a first class international commercial port- the port of Zhangjiagang. The port was originally a composite port of Shanghai port. At present, the port ranks the 6th in terms of container turnover with an annual turnover of more than 100 million metric tons and is the largest export port on the Yangtze River.

The port of Zhangjiagang has evolved to be the hub of exportation in the Southern Jiangsu Province well known in China and globally as the closest neighbor of Shanghai and the most industrialized and modernized area of China.

This southern Jiangsu area is worldwide known as the CENTER OF TEXTILES and distinguishes itself for being the area where producers care the most about quality, timely delivery and customer service. This nature has won this area a very good reputation in the global textile industry.
